

Turner, Maine, June 20.

Miss Eva Bean,

Bethel, Maine.

Dear Miss Bean,- I enclose more on "Tippy". If you mean me to understand that you have Ripley's caricature of the dog in her act, I would like this one back, as it is my last copy. The photo is yours if you want it, and it is the same as I furnished to Ripley's.

You may find something of interest in my column in the New England Homestead of July 9. My copy to them for June 25, which I wrote the day after I was at Bethel, was apparently lost in the mail.

By the way, how come that a class of ^{group} eight living members of a 50-year, which ~~could~~ ^{could} produce 5 of them at re-union, did not ^{serve} honorable mention that day?

Sincerely,

Gerst. French
